SUBJECT INDEX

Amides, of the platinum metals, 1

Chemotherapy, cancer, organotin compounds and, 109
Cisplatin, the chemical and biochemical consequences of the binding of the antitumour drug cisplatin and other platinum group metal complexes to, 129

DNA, the chemical and biochemical consequences of the binding of the antitumour drug cisplatin and other platinum group metal complexes to, 129

Electrochemical studies, of ruthenium compounds. Part I. Ligand oxidation levels, 239

Heterobimetallics, early–late, 41

Molybdenum, coordination chemistry of Schiff base complexes of, 183

Organotin compounds, and cancer chemotherapy, 109

Platinum group metal complexes, the chemical and biochemical consequences of the binding of the antitumour drug cisplatin and other, to DNA, 129
Platinum metals, amides of the, 1

Ruthenium compounds, electrochemical studies of. Part I. Ligand oxidation levels, 239

Schiff base complexes, of molybdenum, coordination chemistry of, 183
